ton de leeuw 1926 96 is probably one of the most influential composers at the crossroads between eastern philosophy and western technique a one time pupil of olivier messiaens in paris throughout the latter years of his musical career he concentrated on the marriage of western emphasis on action and tension and the ethical function of music in eastern traditions the musical world of the twentieth century is a divided one numerous histories of it have been written but few of the exceptional quality of de leeuws who brought into his writing a lifetime of experience as a composer and scholar of music his work is a lucid and impassioned discussion of the elements structures compositional principles and terminologies in modern music that can be regarded as most innovatory this book is an excellent guide for anyone wishing to gain knowledge of the compositional technique and mentality particularly university and conservatory students a chronological compilation of twentieth century world events in one volume from the acclaimed historian and biographer of Winston Churchill. The twentieth century has been one of the most unique in human history. It has seen the rise of some of humanity's most important advances to date as well as many of its most violent and terrifying wars. This is a condensed version of renowned historian Martin Gilbert's masterful examination of the century's history, offering the highlights of a three-volume work that covers more than three thousand pages from the invention of aviation to the rise of the internet and from events and cataclysmic changes in Europe to those in Asia, Africa, and North America. Martin examines art, literature, war, religion, life and death, and celebration and renewal across the globe and throughout this turbulent and astonishing century.
